"food of no fixed address"

Max is not only a talented chef but also a good communicator.

His classes at the Black Pearl Epicure and Ole House in Brisbane are renowned.

"The Fellowship Of The Onion Rings" are classes designed for humans to master there skills in the b.b.q area.

The outcome, never to be ridiculed by friends and loved ones again.

We are taken through the "Vow of the bbquarian" where compulsive steak turning is brought into question..

The sin of cutting the steak during the cooking process is confessed amongst the group.

Different parts of the palm of the hand are examined to parallel the various stages of the cooking process.

These classes are a must for any person who wants to enjoy the warm feeling that comes from doing something well.

Perfecting the art of the bbq area will accumulate spousal brownie points.

( May be redeemed for fishing trips, Cricket or Rugby outings etc )

Success is measured by students partners thanking Max for saved marriages and preventing Sunday backyard cremation services.

Backyards are now places of fond memories.

"Chics on heat" classes are for the girls who believe the torch of love begins in the kitchen

Max was asked recently "what is the secret of your overnight success?"

His response was "It has only taken 35 years!"
